MEDICAL SIMULATION’S ROLE AS AN AGENT OF CHANGE
Activating Change in Patient Safety, Education, and Preparedness

Tuesday, May 8, 2007
Daniel K. Inouye Auditorium
Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Forest Glen Annex

7:15 - 8:00 am  –  Continental Breakfast and Registration
8:00 - 8:20 am  –  Welcome and Acknowledgements
8:20 - 8:40 am  –  AIMS Accomplishments to Date
8:40 - 9:00 am  –  Articulating a Vision for Medical Simulation
9:00 - 10:00 am  –  Keynote
10:00 - 10:15 am  –  Break
10:15 - 11:15 am  –  Disruptive Aspects of Medical Simulation: Tearing Us From Our Moorings: Personal Perspectives on the Changing World
11:15 - 12:00 pm  –  Creating Change for Medical Simulation at All Levels
12:00 - 1:00 pm  –  Lunch
1:00 - 1:45 pm  –  Town Meeting
1:45 - 2:30 pm  –  Tales From the Frontlines: The Role for Medical Simulation in Warfare, Homeland Defense Preparedness Training, and Disaster Response
2:30 - 2:45 pm  –  Break
2:45 - 3:30 pm  –  Simulation as an Agent of Change for Education
3:30 - 4:15 pm  –  The Marketplace Perspective
   •  Simulation’s Early Impact on the Medical Device Industry
   •  The Business of Medical Simulation: The AIMS Industry Council Update
4:15 - 4:30 pm  –  Closure and Adjournment
4:30 - 6:00 pm  –  Reception & Medical Team Training in the WAVE (Wide Area Virtual Environment) Demonstration at National Capital Area Simulation Center